

RESOURCE IDEAS FOR CHURCHES & INDIVIDUALS

In the week that London hosts the world-famous BAFTA Awards, churches, cell groups and individuals will be lifting the arts professions heavenwards. The world will be watching...and believers will be praying!

Here are some ideas on how you or your church can be involved...

1. Pray for an individual working in the Arts & Entertainment.
 - ✚ This could be somebody from your favourite film or TV series or somebody in the news.
 - ✚ As well as performers, don't forget to pray for Producers, Writers, Directors and other influential professionals.
 - ✚ Remember the Designers and Artists responsible for those eye-catching creations.

2. Encourage your church to remember and pray for the Arts & Entertainment, perhaps as part of a service by:
 - ✚ Presenting a piece of Drama, Dance, Poetry or Music
 - ✚ Inviting an artiste to perform or be interviewed – we have placed some ideas of who you could invite below
 - ✚ Holding an exhibition of paintings, sculptures, photographs or textiles, or perhaps a workshop in your church
 - ✚ Creating a PowerPoint presentation or slide show by screening one of the short celebrity interview videos or a simple slide show using the prayer and some images - all downloadable from the sites below
 - ✚ Simply using the Arts & Entertainment Sunday Prayer as below, either as a communal or individual prayer

3. Tell others by:
 - ✚ Forwarding details of Arts & Entertainment Sunday on your Social Media page and mentioning any activity your church might be planning
 - ✚ Put a news item or short interview piece in your church bulletin or notice board
 - ✚ Let us know how you used Arts & Entertainment Sunday and how we can resource you even better next year!

A PRAYER FOR ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT SUNDAY

(This could be read by one or more people, by the whole congregation or used as the basis of a Power Point presentation with pictures & music)

Lord God thank you that you are the giver of all good gifts. Thank you for the diversity of creative talents which enrich life and bring enjoyment to many. Help those who work in the arts and entertainment industry to give their gifts generously and use their talents wisely and in ways which honour your name.

You filled our world with music, vision, words, movement, colour and expression. You gave us sensitivity to interpret and the ability to communicate. You shared your love with us through a vibrant array of dance, drama, song, & laughter, and art in the form of sculpture, painting, architecture, publishing & design. Forgive us when we focus only on the creation, rather than the creator.

Help us remember that the beauty, loveliness and gentleness of your character is represented by the world around us and expressed in the skills of those in the arts and entertainment professions.

We pray that those in the world of TV, Film, theatre, media and creative arts may sense your presence as they release their gifts, and that those who receive these gifts will see your heavenly power at work. [You could mention those in your own church who work in the arts, media or entertainment here]

Lord as we bow down before you, we ask you to bless those in the arts & entertainment professions, that they may declare your true majesty and glory, and that they may represent you as you intended. Amen

DAD`s ARMY – An Evening with Frank Williams one of the best-known faces in the most popular classic comedy television series ever made, and appears in the new feature film. Yet the Dad`s Army vicar in real life has a strong Christian faith and a lifelong commitment to the church. Even after thirty years, the BBC`s Dad`s Army continues to regularly pull in millions of viewers for each repeated episode. Some churches have even encouraged a themed event with afternoon tea, or a wartime supper and fancy costume! Frank`s private and un-aired footage of the Dad`s Army cast is included where the church has the technical facilities, and has been very popular with all age audiences.

JANEY LEE GRACE, known to millions as Steve Wright`s daily sidekick on BBC Radio Two`s primetime week day show, also enjoys her own regular BBC shows alongside presenting Sunday Love Songs and Friday Night Is Music Night. SYD LITTLE, one half of legendary comedy duo Little & Large, recently featured on BBCTV`s Masterchef, ITV`s Ant & Dec`s Takeaway, Cash in the Attic, Big Brother and Granada TV`s Trust Me I`m A Holiday Rep, is celebrating 50 years of show business and touring churches with his Gospel show which has proved extremely popular across the UK..

HEAVENS JUKEBOX – An evening of original 60`s music! Stars from some of the UK`s top bands invite you to join them for an explosive mix of stunning music and great stories as Churches across the UK rock to the sounds of the sixties! The latest evangelistic opportunity is now available to many more churches across the UK as some of the country`s leading band members from the solid gold sixties re-unite. Musicians from various bands including Hermans Hermits, ELO, The Beatles, Cliff Richard, Lonnie Donnegan, Gene Vincent and `one-hit wonders`. A roaring event bursting with musical nostalgia and fascinating stories behind the bands.

The evenings or afternoons with DANA, Dads Army `s Frank Williams, Janey Lee Grace, Jimmy Cricket, Syd Little or Heavens Jukebox consists of much laughter, great music and cringe-free chat about the effect that God has had on their personal and commercial lives. They often draw a good crowd, are frequently self-funding even by charging low ticket prices and can be used as a celebration event, an outreach or as an introduction to an Alpha Supper. This selection of light-hearted events are designed to have a wide appeal across the age ranges and can be enjoyed by all ages and backgrounds and are ideal for those who don`t normally attend church. Each event is self-standing and personally hosted by myself or one of my experienced colleagues. This celebrity- based format has been very successful over many years and if you think this fits your church`s strategy for outreach, please let me know your ideal event and dates and I will forward the appropriate information, availability, technical requirements and costs.

I hope that I can help you find an event that will enable you to reach wider into your community with the good news!
